There are 2 paper making kit options on the list. The instructor recommends the Arnold Grummer kit as it is of better quality, but either one will be fine.

On this amazon list they can purchase:

- 1-Papermaking frame kit ( w/ set of 3 moulds & deckles)
- 1-pack of 20 Couch blotter sheets
- 1-big sponge
- 1-pack pulp

Additional Items they will need (& can find from around the house):

-A plastic wash tub or storage container with a removable lid needs to be at least 17"Lx14"Wx6"D so that the dip mold and 2 hands can comfortably fit inside.

-plastic cups

-recycled paper (white & colored) shredded or in sheets with no plastic

-additional sponges (bigger is better)

-stencils, cookie cutter shapes, stamps, shells, sand, dried flowers, twigs & leaves, ribbons, etc

I will have a blender on site for the pulp making but if they have an old blender they want to use they are definitely encouraged to bring it to make more pulp.

& lastly, if they have a dip mould & deckle they can use that & do not need to purchase the kit but will need the sponges, couch paper and the other "additional items".
