92NY Expert

Juliette Wells, Professor of Literary Studies at Goucher College in Baltimore, Maryland, is guest co-curator of the Morgan Library & Museum's "A Lively Mind: Jane Austen at 250" exhibition. She is the author of three histories of Austen's readers and fans, all published by Bloomsbury Academic: A New Jane Austen: How Americans Brought Us the World's Greatest Novelist (2023), Reading Austen in America (2017), and Everybody's Jane: Austen in the Popular Imagination (2011). For Penguin Classics, she created reader-friendly annotated editions of Emma (2015), Persuasion (2017), and Mansfield Park (2025).

Dr. Wells has presented courses on Austen for lifelong learners under the auspices of the Rosenbach Library in Philadelphia, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute of Chicago, and Lakeside Chautauqua Ohio. She has given public lectures on Austen at Jane Austen's House in Chawton, England; the Carnegie Library in Dunfermline, Scotland; the Halifax Central Library; the Princeton Public Library; the Free Library of Philadelphia; the Omaha Public Library; and the Enoch Pratt Free Library in Baltimore. Dr. Wells is regularly invited to address Jane Austen societies, including regional and national gatherings of the Jane Austen Society of North America and the Jane Austen Society of Australia.

Dear fellow travelers,

Journey back in time with Juliette Wells, Professor of Literary Studies, as you follow in the footsteps of Jane Austen throughout the beautiful area of England that inspired her novels. This custom-designed itinerary is not only for Jane Austen enthusiasts but for admirers of history and lovers of the English countryside alike.

We will begin our adventure into "Jane Austen's World" in Chawton with a visit to Jane Austen's House, a Hampshire cottage that is now a museum, where the magic of the Bennet sisters and their adventures (sometimes scandalous) come alive. We will stroll through the gardens where Jane Austen's characters were formed; immerse ourselves in libraries with first-edition novels; and visit cathedrals, being sure to avoid Mr. William Collins.

We then journey to Bath, where we settle in for five nights, "to see, be seen, and take the waters," like the Elliots and the Musgroves. There we will explore the impressive Roman Baths, commonly visited for their healing qualities. We will take a promenade and familiarize ourselves with the city's beau monde. While in Bath we will take afternoon tea and learn of all the exploits and scandals of le bon ton. Spend a day experiencing the charms of Lyme Regis while hunting for ammonites along the Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where Mary Anning searched for them more than two centuries ago. There may be time to stroll along "The Cobb," but we must be mindful not to lose our footing on the steps, because Captain Wentworth will not be there to catch us!

Not only will we explore gardens and cathedrals, including a privately guided tour of the gardens at Hampton Court Palace; but we will also visit Oxford's Bodleian Library, one of the oldest libraries in Europe; and the Bayeux Tapestry exhibit at the British Museum.

Traveling round-trip from London, our small group will be accompanied by a dedicated local tour manager/guide for what is sure to be a wonderful time of learning and camaraderie. This 92NY-exclusive tour is limited to 20 guests, so I encourage you to reserve your space soon.

Sincerely,

Shannon Vail

Tuesday, June 1, 2027: Depart home

Wednesday, June 2: Arrive London, England | Transfer to Windsor | Molesey: Hampton Court Palace | Windsor | Welcome dinner

Arrive at London's Heathrow Airport (LHR), where you will be met and transferred as a group (time TBD) to Windsor. En route to Windsor, we stop to visit Hampton Court Palace, which was built in the 16th century as a residence for Cardinal Thomas Wolsey, until he fell out of favor with Henry VIII. It then fell into the hands of the monarchy. After centuries of rebuilding, a stately palace was created with a beautiful mix of Tudor and Baroque styles. Enjoy a tour of the world-renowned gardens with a head gardener, who cares for its 750 acres of formal gardens and parkland on the banks of the River Thames. Continue on to Windsor, where we check-in to our hotel and gather for a welcome dinner this evening. Overnight at the 4-star Macdonald Windsor Hotel. (D)

Thursday, June 3: Chawton: Chawton House, Jane Austen's House | Bath

After breakfast we begin our journey to Bath, stopping along the way in Chawton to visit Chawton House. The house once belonged to Jane Austen's brother, Edward, and it was the "Great House" referred to in many of Jane's letters. The library's collection of books focuses on women's literature in English, holding some of the only known surviving copies of their works. Just down the road, we will explore Jane Austen's House, the most treasured Austen site in the world. Jane Austen's six completed novels were written here, and the first edition copies reside here. Continue on to Bath, where we check-in to our hotel and have dinner. Five nights at the 4-star Hotel Indigo Bath. (B,D)

Friday, June 4: Bath: Walking tour, Roman Baths, Afternoon tea, Time at leisure, No. 1 Royal Crescent

This morning, we enter the world of Bath, the only city in the United Kingdom designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Follow in the footsteps of Jane Austen's characters as we take a walking tour of the compact city center, a wellness destination since Roman times. Next, we visit the impressive Roman Baths, once the site of one of the great religious spas of the ancient world, dedicated to the goddess Sulis Minerva. The people of

The Roman Baths, Bath

Roman Britain bathed here in the hot water of the natural thermal springs, which still flow today. At lunch time, we will enjoy a hearty afternoon tea in the Pump Room Restaurant at the Baths, taking in the traditional ritual of tea, sweets, tea sandwiches, and scones that began in the 1800s. Enjoy some free time to explore Bath before gathering for an after-hours tour of the architecture of No. 1 Royal Crescent, a museum showcasing life in Georgian Bath. Dinner is on your own this evening. (B,T)

Saturday, June 5: Wells: Wells Cathedral | Bath

Today we visit Wells Cathedral, one of England's finest Gothic structures. Built progressively from east to west over multiple centuries, the cathedral showcases Early English and Perpendicular Gothic styles, with notable additions such as the Lady Chapel and the ornate chapter house. After lunch at a local pub, enjoy some free time to explore the city of Wells. Return to Bath, where the balance of the day and dinner are at leisure. (B,L)

Sunday, June 6: Wiltshire: Stourhead | Bath: Holburne Museum

After breakfast at our hotel, we drive to Wiltshire and visit Stourhead house and gardens. When Stourhead first opened in the 1740s, it was described as 'a living work of art'. The Palladian house is set amid well-manicured lawns and extensive parkland. The centerpiece of the garden is a lake reflecting classical temples, mystical grottoes, and rare and exotic trees. After our morning of exploring, we return to Bath and visit the Holburne Museum, whose collection is centered around an eclectic assortment of decorative arts, Renaissance treasures, and British portraits that were acquired by local resident Sir William Holburne (1793-1874) during a "grand tour" of Europe. This evening we gather for dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Monday, June 7: Lyme Regis Fossil Beach | Bath

After breakfast we drive to Lyme Regis, a charming seaside town that is part of the Jurassic Coast natural UNESCO World Heritage Site "Dorset and the East Devon Coast." We search for ammonites with an expert at Lyme Regis Fossil Beach, much like Mary Anning, pioneering paleontologist and fossil collector, did in the early 19th century. Lyme Regis is home to the Cobb, the place where Louisa Musgrove fell from the steps in Jane Austen's novel, Persuasion. Enjoy an independent lunch and time on your own to explore Lyme Regis before we return to Bath for the balance of the day and dinner at leisure. (B)

Tuesday, June 8: Oxford: Bodleian Library, walking tour | London

This morning we depart Bath for London, stopping along the way in Oxford. Upon arrival, we take a guided tour of the Bodleian Library, one of the oldest and most prestigious libraries in Europe. After an independent lunch, we take a walking tour of Oxford, passing some of the oldest colleges such as 13th Exeter College and Baliol College, as well as the 18th-century Oxford Covered Market. We continue on to London, where we check-in to our hotel and gather this evening for dinner. Two nights at the 5-star 100 Queen's Gate Hotel. (B,D)

Wednesday, June 9: London: British Library, British Museum | Farewell dinner

After breakfast, we visit the British Library, the national library of the United Kingdom, whose shelves hold over 170 million items. After an independent lunch, we continue on to the British Museum where the Bayeux Tapestry is on historic loan from France. The tapestry depicts the events leading up to the 1066 Norman Conquest of England. This evening we gather for a farewell dinner. (B,D)
